EXTRA-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

- Apart from being a developer, I enjoy most of my time being outdoors. Curiosity, courage, and self-organization. Traveling can prove you're not afraid of stepping outside your comfort zone and learning new things. And flexibility and adaptability are among the most important workplace personal traits.
- When forced indoors, I follow a number of sci-fi and fantasy genre movies and television shows, and I spend a large amount of my free time exploring the latest technology advancements in the world.
